

GIRL THIEVES' DEN RAIDED AND 5 OUT OF 14 CAPTURED

Their Operations Confined to Stripping Williamsburg
Roof Wash Lines.

ALL ARE IN THEIR TEENS.

Two Younger Members of Band Said to Have Confessed to Police.

In capturing five girls, all in their teens, by a raid today on two rooms of a four-story tenement at No. 206 Oakland street, Williamsburg, the police believe they have rounded up the leaders of a band of young thieves who have taken to wholesale robbing of wash lines on the roofs of tenements. Two of the younger girls are said to have confessed to many thefts under the direction of the two oldest girls, who, the police expect to prove, are feminine fagins.

The two alleged leaders gave their names as Florence Herlick, seventeen years old, who ran away from her home at No. 120 Franklin street, Greenpoint, two weeks ago, and Anna Pachner, nineteen years old, who also ran away from her home at No. 120 North Fourth street, Williamsburg, about the same time. Beyond denying their guilt these two refused to make any statement and were remanded for another hearing by Magistrate Nauman in the Manhattan Avenue Court.

The three disciples of this pair of alleged girl fagins gave the names of Jeanette Davis, fifteen years old; Julia McCormick, fourteen years old, and another Julia McCormick, nine years old, who claimed to be the other's first cousin. The trio refused to give their home addresses.

TWO YOUNGER GIRLS SAID TO HAVE CONFESSED.

According to the police and Agents Pickler and Viano, the two McCormicks admitted having robbed clotheslines for two months. They said Florence Herlick rented the two rooms in the Oakland street tenement two months ago and, with Pachner as her lieutenant, gathered a band of about twenty younger girls and organized a thieves' band. The McCormicks said no other form of robbery had been adopted. The stolen clothes and linen were brought to the "club's" rooms and the leaders, they alleged, disposed of the stuff for money and divided the proceeds with the band regularly every week.

The raid on the tenement followed the receipt of anonymous letters by Police Captain Coleman of the Greenpoint avenue station, Williamsburg, and the Brooklyn Children's Society, in which they were advised that a thieves' den existed at that number. Detectives Nelson and Degallo watched the house early to-day, accompanied by the two Children's Society agents, and saw a large number of young girls who acted in a suspicious manner enter the building.

When the four officers broke into the rooms on the second floor there were fourteen girls there. The girls made a rush for the rear fire escape and nine of them got away. A quantity of washing was found in the rooms, some of which was identified by Mrs. Anna Heller, who lives in an Oakland street tenement, as part of her washing stolen from the lines yesterday.

The police have been receiving complaints for weeks that indicated the existence of an organized group of wash line thieves. Captain Coleman is convinced that today's raid has solved the mystery. He is confident that the other nine girls who escaped in the raid will be arrested before night.

BARN DANCE IN A SCHOOL

The annual unique barn dance of the young members of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, East Ninetieth street, will take place Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 26 and 27, in the school auditorium.

The Rev. James J. Talbot and his Committee of Farmers are preparing a real barn scene. An exhibition of chickens, geese, goats and a pig will be a feature. A champion basspinner will be in the barn to entertain the old folks.

How to Live Long— and Feel Young

Thousands of men and women who have passed their allotted "three-score-years-and-ten" owe their longevity to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

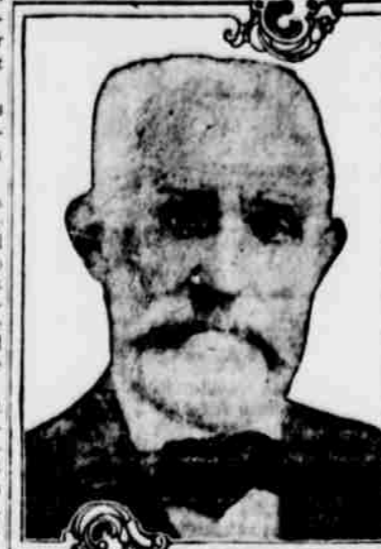

And with their advanced years has not come the doddering helplessness of old age; the spirit of youth has stayed with them.

At the Duffy Malt Whiskey Co.'s Laboratories in Rochester, N. Y., there are files of letters from men and women of over seventy—many who have almost reached the century mark—who used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey fifty years ago, and to-day in the sunset of their lives, they are still using it, still depending on it—for the good it has done and is doing them.

One of more than passing interest is given here: "I have been a constant user of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for many years, and although I am now past 78 years of age and soon will reach my seventy-ninth birthday, I can outwalk most of the young men of to-day. My strength and activity and my ability to enjoy life are due to the use of your valuable whiskey. I am now negotiating with a view of starting a fruit farm in either Washington or Michigan, as I feel like a young man with all the world before me. There is one thing certain, I will always keep Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey with me, and I can conscientiously recommend it to all old people if they wish to keep young and vigorous."

R. H. Chase, 7218 South Morgan St., Chicago, Ill.

245 Women's Reversible Coats that have also reversed their prices values 19.50 and 25.00 tomorrow only at 12.95

The reversible coat is the most popular choice of the season with those women who have a penchant for the ultra smart in dress. Like people whose charm consists in their ability to adapt themselves to any environment or occasion, the reversible coat is attractive for its accommodating disposition. There is a certain satisfaction in knowing that the coat one is wearing can be worn equally well inside out, the dark side for day and the lighter side for evening use.

Just now, however, double-face or reversible cloth is scarce. So much so that one of our manufacturers has discontinued to make reversible coats for the Fall season and has turned over to us for quick distribution the 245 coats which constitute the balance of his stock. As a result of this we are able to offer you a reversible garment at an extremely low figure, though it must be borne in mind that the entire offering is only 245 in number.

These coats are cut full, with shawl collar, kimono sleeves and large turn-over cuffs. Color combinations are navy with Copenhagen, green with navy, brown with tan, gray with Copenhagen, and gray with wistaria. Each garment is beautifully made, the workmanship exhibiting every evidence of high class labor. And the saving is extremely liberal.

Women's Tailored Serge Dresses

value 25.00 tomorrow at 15.00

Three models, all strictly tailored, in fine quality serge, and redeemed from an excess of severity with little touches of color effectively distributed. Collars are pointed or round, made of satin, and some have large lapels. Skirt is one of the new snaps. Colors are navy, Copenhagen or black. But a few lines of cold type cannot convey to you what charming little garments these dresses are.

Women's Corduroy Skirts

value 7.50 tomorrow at 4.90

Made of high grade heavy corduroy. Straight lines, with plain back. High waist effect. Opens at side and is there punctuated with pearl buttons. Black, navy, white, brown or castor. Lengths, 36 to 41 inches.

Women's Street and Afternoon Dresses value 45.00 tomorrow 29.50

Several new models bring to this offering of crepe meteor dresses that charm of newness which is ever the object of a woman's pursuit. Some of these dresses are trimmed with laces, others are embroidered. Some have new shaped collars, others have Dutch neck. Set-in or kimono sleeves, and new shaped skirt. Navy, black, taupe, purple, Copenhagen or green.

Saks Clothes for Men

15.00 to 50.00

You cannot make any mistake about Saks clothes—unless you are not wearing them. They fulfil every requirement you can think of and some that may not generally occur to you.

They embody every cardinal point in quality of tailoring, fabric and fit, and have a style that is peculiarly their own, as well as a number of other advantages not found in average good clothes.

We refer particularly to the perfection of detail and to the distinctiveness of lines which have come to be regarded as peculiarly characteristic of Saks-made clothes.

And above and beyond all this, they are the best clothes you can buy, for the reason that their excellence is achieved without prohibitive expense. Let that be your cue!

Let us equip your Boy with Fall clothes

On the subject of boys' clothes we take off our hats to nobody. It is one of our pet propositions. We have mastered all its phases—durability of fabrics, desirability of models, and economy of prices. We will state it boldly, in fact, that no boys' clothes on the market combine in a higher degree the three qualifications mentioned. And the garments advertised in this announcement are superior in every way to those sold elsewhere for the same money.

At 5.75—Boys' Suits, extra trousers, in a large assortment of Norfolk and double-breasted models. The fabrics are mostly dark and medium effects, serge lined. Trousers are full-lined. The value is quite out of the ordinary.

At 7.95—Boys' Suits, extra trousers, in a variety of mannish cloths, tailored in Norfolk or double-breasted models, and finished in the best possible manner. Would sell readily for more.

At 9.75—Boys' Suits, extra trousers, in many desirable fabrics that are exclusive with us. These include the new browns and grays. Tailored and trimmed in the most approved fashion, and a value not to be duplicated.

5.50 to 20.00—Boys' Dress or School Suits, in a large assortment of models, and in desirable materials of the most wanted colorings.

Blue Serge Suits at 15.00

for Youths and Boys

Ages 14 to 20. Sizes 30 to 36.

The tendency among youths and boys of the better class is generally towards conservatism in clothes. And blue serge continues to be a popular choice for at least one suit in the youthful wardrobe.

Yet, while conservative, no fabric better shows the advantages of good tailoring than a blue serge. These blue serge suits at fifteen dollars prove that. Made in youthful models, and tailored along youthful lines, they are full of snap and style, and look more like twenty-five dollar productions than anything else.

In every detail, these blue serge suits at fifteen dollars are so far above the average that none who sees them can remain in doubt as to where his preference lies. Come in and ask to be shown. That is the sensible thing to do.

A Saks heavy weight blue serge at 15.00 is just sufficiently unusual to merit unusual attention.
